COMPENSATION POLICY (BANKING SERVICES)-2014

1. INTRODUCTION

Technological progress in payment and settlement systems and the qualitative changes in operational systems and processes that have been undertaken by various players in the market have enabled market forces of competition to come into play to improve efficiencies in providing better service to the users of the system. It will be the bank's endeavor to offer services to its customers with best possible utilization of its technology infrastructure. This Compensation Policy of the bank is therefore, designed to cover areas relating to unauthorized debiting of account, payment of interest to customers for delayed collection of chques/ instruments, payment of cheques after acknowledgement of stop payment instructions, remittances within India, foreign exchange services, lending, etc. The policy is based on principles of transparency and fairness in the treatment of customers.

2. OBJECTIVE

The objective of the "Kallappa Anna Awade Ichalkaranji Janata Sah. Bank's Compensation Policy" (hereinafter called the Policy), is to establish a system whereby the Bank compensates the customer due to deficiency in service on the part of the Bank or any act of omission or commission, directly attributable to the Bank.

3. SCOPE

- a) The Policy will be applicable to all banking service customers of the Bank.
- b) The Policy is based on principles of transparency and fairness in the treatment of customers. It is designed to cover deficiency in service in areas relating to unauthorized debiting of accounts, payment of interest to customers for delayed collection of cheques/instruments, payment of cheques after acknowledgment of stop payment instructions, remittances within India, etc. as specified in this Policy.

COMPENSATION POLICY (BANKING SERVICES)-2014

- c) Grant of compensation under this Policy is without prejudice to the Bank's rights in defending its position before any Court of Law, Tribunal or any other forum duly constituted to adjudicate banker-customer disputes and does not constitute admission of liability or any other issue, of any nature whatsoever for the purposes of Adjudicatory proceedings.

4. RECOGNITION OF DEFICIENCY AND COMPENSATION

4.1 Unauthorized / Erroneous Debit:

- If the Bank has raised an unauthorized/ erroneous debit to an account, the entry shall be reversed immediately on being detected/informed, after due verification. If such a debit has resulted in a financial loss to the customer by way of reduction in the minimum balance applicable for payment of interest on savings bank deposit or payment of additional interest to the Bank in a loan account or levying of penalty for not maintaining the stipulated minimum balance in the account, Bank shall compensate the customer to that extent.
- Further, if the customer has suffered any loss incidental to return of a cheque or not carrying out of direct debit instructions due to insufficiency of balance on account of the unauthorized / erroneous debit, Bank will compensate the customer to the extent of such financial loss in addition to an amount equivalent to interest calculated on the unauthorized/erroneously debited amount at applicable Savings Bank rate, minimum Rs.100/-, besides refunding the cheque return charges.
- In case verification of the entry reported to be unauthorised /erroneous by the customer does not involve a third party, the Bank shall arrange to complete the process of verification within a maximum period of 7 working days from the date of reporting of erroneous debit. If it involves a third party or where verification is to be done at overseas centers, the Bank shall complete the verification process within a maximum period of one month from the date of reporting of unauthorised /erroneous transaction by the customer.

COMPENSATION POLICY (BANKING SERVICES)-2014

- In case any amount has been debited to the account of a customer on account of fraudulent transactions, the amount will be restored to the affected customer account without delay/demur, once the fraud is established.
- If a fraud, in the account of a customer, has been committed by a member of staff, and has been so established, Bank will not only restore the amount, it will also pay compensation @ 1% above the specified rate as provided in Bank's Cheque Collection Policy for delayed collection in deposit account and @ 1% above the applicable interest rate (Bank rate) in respect of overdraft/loan account, for the period, on the amount involved.
- In case where neither the Bank is at fault nor the customer, but the fault lies elsewhere in the system, the Bank will help in restoring the actual amount involved and as a gesture of goodwill and to deal with the customers fairly, will also compensate the customer with Rs.100/- per Rs.5000/- maximum Rs.1000/- for each instance.

4.2 ECS direct debits/other debits to accounts:

- The Bank undertakes to carry out, within the prescribed time, direct debit /ECS (Electronic Clearing Service) debit instructions of customers. In the event of non-compliance/delayed compliance of instructions by the Bank to meet such commitments, the customer will be compensated to the extent of any financial loss the customer would incur on account of delay in carrying out the instruction/failure to carry out the instruction.
- Such compensation may be equivalent to the interest calculated on the amount to be debited, for the delayed period, at applicable Savings Bank rate, with minimum of Rs.100/-, subject to a maximum of Rs.500/-.
- The Bank would debit the customer's account with any applicable service charge as per the schedule of charges notified by the bank. In the event the Bank levies any charge in violation of the arrangement or inadvertently, Bank will reverse the charges, subject to scrutiny of agreed terms and conditions, and compensate the customer by a sum equal to the charges reversed.

4.3. Uniformity in penal interest payable by banks for delays in credit/return of NEFT/NECS/ ECS transactions:

In terms of the NEFT / NECS / ECS Procedural Guidelines of RBI, as also the relevant circulars / instructions issued by RBI from time to time, member banks need to afford credits to beneficiary accounts or return transactions (unaccredited for whatever reason) to the originating / sponsor bank within the prescribed timeline. Any delays in doing so attract penal provisions specified therein. In order to ensure standardization of the benchmark rate used and bring in uniformity in penal provisions across the retail payment products, RBI has made the following modifications:

4.3.1 NECS / ECS-Credit:

Destination Bank would be held liable to pay penal interest at the current RBI Repo Rate plus one per cent from the due date of credit till the date of actual credit for any delayed credit to the beneficiaries' account. Except in case of dormant accounts, the accounts which are freezed due to attachment instructions from government official etc., penal interest shall be credited to the Beneficiary's Account even if no claim is lodged."

4.3.2 NEFT:

- In the event of any delay or loss on account of error, negligence or fraud on the part of an employee of the destination bank in the completion of funds transfer pursuant to receipt of payment instruction by the destination bank leading to delayed payment to the beneficiary, the destination bank shall pay compensation at current RBI Repo Rate plus one per cent for the period of delay for credit to the beneficiary's a/c. In the event of delay in return of the funds transfer instruction for any reason whatsoever, the destination bank shall refund the amount together with interest at the current RBI Repo Rate plus one per cent till the date of refund."

COMPENSATION POLICY (BANKING SERVICES)-2014

- If NEFT credit gets delayed due to technical problem or system errors from our side or beneficiary bank or payment settlement systems, it will not be covered in above said compensation rules.

4.3.3 During the NEFT operating hours, originating banks should endeavour to put through the requests for NEFT transactions received by them, either online or across the counters, preferably in the next available batch but, in any case, not exceeding two hours (from the business hours next day), from the time of receipt of the requests. In the likelihood of any delay / possible delay in adhering to this requirement, the originators / customers should be informed of the delay / possible delay and the reasons for the same.

4.3.4 In terms of the RBI ECS (Credit Clearing) procedural guidelines which clearly stipulate that if a destination bank branch is not in a position to credit a particular transaction for reason like "Account Closed/ transferred"; "No such Accounts"; "Account description does not tally"; etc. it should report the same and forward it to the Service Branch/ Main Branch on the same settlement day.

4.4. Issue of ATM/Debit Cards without written consent of customers:

Where the Bank had issued an ATM / Debit card without written consent of the customer, which has been disputed by the customer without using the card, the said ATM/Debit card will be taken back by the Bank and got cancelled. The Bank would not only reverse the charges, if levied, immediately but also pay compensation to the customer Rs.100/- if cancellation is done.

4.5. Payment of Cheques after Acknowledgement of Stop Payment Instructions

4.5.1 The instruction for Stop Payment will be accepted at Home Branch/through Contact centre/Internet Banking (alternate channel).

4.5.2 In case a cheque has been paid after stop payment instruction is acknowledged by the Bank, Bank shall reverse the debit with value dated credit within three working days of the customer intimating the transaction to the Bank and also compensate the customer with Rs.100/-. However, no compensation will be paid if cheque has been paid prior to acknowledgment of stop payment instructions.

4.6 Foreign Exchange Services:

Bank is not carrying out any foreign exchange transactions directly. Recently, bank has got "AD-II" Foreign Exchange License" from Reserve Bank of India. Now, bank is in process to start foreign exchange transaction rules. Compensation rules for these transactions will be covered in "Foreign Exchange Transaction Policy" and accordingly this policy will be amended. As of now, bank is executing payment of "Letter of Credit" transactions through other bank. In event of loss to customer due to any delay, bank will be liable to pay compensation.

4.7 Collection of cheques payable in India

4.7.1 Payment of Interest for delayed Collection of Outstation Cheques:

As part of the compensation policy of the bank, the bank will pay interest to its customers on the amount of collection instruments in case there is delay in giving credit beyond the time period specified in Bank's Cheque collection policy. Such interest shall be paid without any demand from customers in all types of accounts. There shall be no distinction between instruments drawn on the bank's own branches or on other banks for the purpose of payment of interest on delayed collection.

4.7.2 Interest for delayed collection shall be paid at the following rates:

- a) Saving Bank rate for the period of delay beyond 7 days/10 days/14 days as the case may be in collection of outstation cheques, i.e. from 8th /11th /15th day, the interest will be payable.
- b) Where the delay is beyond 14 days interest will be paid at the rate applicable for term deposit for the corresponding period or Saving Bank rate, whichever is higher.

COMPENSATION POLICY (BANKING SERVICES)-2014

c) In case of extraordinary delay, i.e. delays exceeding 90 days, interest will be paid at the rate of 2% above the corresponding Term Deposit rate.

d) In the event the proceeds of cheque under collection, to be credited to an overdraft/loan account of the customer, interest will be paid at the rate applicable to the loan account. For extraordinary delays, i.e. delays exceeding 90 days interest will be paid at the rate of 2% above the rate applicable to the loan account.

4.7.3 Interest as above shall be payable with a minimum of Rs.25/-.

4.7.4 Compensation as detailed above shall be paid without any formal demand from customers and there shall be no distinction between instruments drawn on the Bank's own branches or on other banks which are payable in India.

4.8 Compensation for delay in clearance of Local Cheques

4.8.1 The compensation to the customers is payable, in case of delay in clearance of local cheques beyond stipulated local clearing period. Such compensation shall be paid without any demand from customers in all types of accounts at Savings Bank interest rate.

4.8.2 Instruments drawn on the bank's own branches and presented across the counter are being credited, to the customers' account on the same day, subject to cheque amount being under existing cap for non-home transactions.

4.9 Compensation for loss of Cheques / Instruments in transit.

4.9.1 In the event a cheque or an instrument accepted for collection is lost in transit or in clearing process or lost by the Service Provider (in case of CMP), the Bank shall immediately on coming to know of the loss of instrument, bring the same to the notice of the accountholder so that the accountholder can inform the drawer to record stop payment and also take care that cheques ,if any, issued by him/her are not dishonoured due to non-credit of the amount of the lost cheque/ instrument. The Bank would
